

Solitude

Thomas Dybdahl

So much for solitude and spills from the mind
Romantisized as always
I cannot afford not to invest in myself
But I won't let the world get you down

I won't leave your side
I won't leave your side

Same old, same old
This is the way the story goes
When I need me most you need me more
The truth of it all is all around me I know
But it wasn't like this before
Still, I won't let you down
No I won't leave your side
I won't let you down this time
