

Car Window

Thomas Headon

She had this like, blonde hair, glasses
And drove the coolest looking, like, cute car
Anyway, don't worry about it

The girl in the car window opposite me
She keeps on staring at me, does she love me?
How will I know?
Will I ever know?
The girl in the car window opposite me
She keeps on looking at me, does she love me?
How will I know?
Will I ever know?

Kinda looks like I've seen her before but
Then again I think I see the same girls every day
They become the same
I wouldn't care if she stared a little longer
She's kinda cute but maybe she's thinking that I look strange
Is my hair okay?

And is a red light really a good time to find
Someone to fall for only by eyesight?
Definitely not but I know that I will
And is it the right time to be in love for a night?
I don't know her name but she's still on my mind
I'd break my own heart through a window, still

The girl in the car window opposite me
She keeps on staring at me, does she love me?
How will I know? (How will I know?)
Will I ever know? (Will I ever know?)
The girl in the car window opposite me
She keeps on looking at me, does she love me?
How will I know? (How will I know?)
Will I ever know?

Maybe she's thinking of me too (doubt it)
Would that even be something she'd do? (probably not)
Maybe she's looking for me in a song that she'll write
About the one guy who she saw at a red light
I think it's unlikely
She's probably far away now the lights have changed
And I will never be the same

The girl in the car window opposite me
She keeps on staring at me, does she love me?
How will I know? (How will I know?)
Will I ever know? (Will I ever know?)
The girl in the car window opposite me
She keeps on looking at me, does she love me?
How will I know? (How will I know?)
Will I ever know? (Will I ever know?)

Car window, opposite me
Car window, opposite me
How will I know?
Will I ever know?

Car window, opposite me (car window)
Car window, opposite me (car window)
How will I know? (How will I know?)
Will I ever know? (Will I ever know?)
Car window
How will I know?
Will I ever know?

Basically think I'm in love with her now
