

How Do I Know?

Thomas Headon

I think I'm gonna marry this girl tonight
Second dates always seem to be my last ones
Said I loved her after half a glass of wine
I think that this is gonna be my last one

Having plenty in a hotel for the night
Booked the room thinking I would be alone but
I'm still going, she wants to come in
I think I've heard this story before

Cause I, could do this over again sometime a little more sober
I, could see me with her again sometime a little all over
I, think I see her in my dreams all the time but I'm not sure if I
Wanna fall in love for the night or
If it's the moment?

How do I how do I know?
How do I how do I know?
How do I how do I know?

I think I'm gonna treat this girl alright
She's a little more special than the last one
Haven't spoken to my friends for half the night
Why am I always finding wives at the wrong time

Wanna get a ring just to promise that I
Wouldn't rather fucking anybody else but
I'm still going, she let's me know it
Boy you're so damn outta your mind

But I, could do this over again sometime a little more sober
I, Could see me with her again sometime a little all over
I, think I see her in my dreams all the time
But I'm not sure if
I, wanna fall in love for the night or if it's the moment?

Ow!

How do I how do I know?
How do I how do I know?
How do I how do I know?

How do I know?
If she will hold my hand when I'm dying on her bed
And if I would talk about her to family when I'm out with them
And we would even work, when we're sober in the morning
But I would learn, I'd happily learn

I, could do this over again sometime but I'm not sure if I
Am in love with the moment

How do I how do I know?
How do I how do I know?
