i loved a boy

Thomas Headon

I loved a boy, he hated me
We barely speak, he doesn't see like I do
But it's better anyway
I gave my all, he hated that Took him a while to text me back, what did I do?
But it's better anyway

But why can't you give me the time, give me the time
Give me the time I need?
But why can't you give me the time, give me the time
Give me the time I need?

I loved a boy, he knew me well
First he was great, could never tell
We'd be through, in a month or two
I took a chance, we weren't the same
What'd you expect? He ran away
They all do, saying, "It's me, not you"

But why can't you give me the time, give me the time
Give me the time I need?
But why can't you give me the time, give me the time
Give me the time I need?

Because it's easy to say, "It wasn't right"
Can you admit that you wasted my time?

But why can't you give me the time, give me the time
Give me the time I need?

I loved a boy, he was the one
Thought we would last forever, but now we're done
