

not saying goodbye :(

Thomas Headon

Should've known better than to only say, "Hey, you dropped this"

Jumbled all my words like an idiot, couldn't help it
I buy you dinner in my head if I could
And you buy me nothing 'cause you're probably used to it
I fucked it and there's nothing I can do about it

It's fine if I was just a passing thought (Mm, mm, mm, mm)
I guess the fifteen seconds felt like so much more

You
Had tied up your hair with sunlight in your eyes
You
Only here for the weekend, maybe I've got no time
To call you up on a Sunday
To fall in love on a Monday
And the hardest part was not saying goodbye

Maybe I'll just keep 'em comin' back and you'll be tryin' to find me
Say a little more than before now I fuck it up
It's enough, enough to be
Lookin' at you next to me and not in my head
Tell me all about yourself, I could get used to it
It's stupid and I think that I should probably forget it

It's fine if I was just a passing thought

You
Had tied up your hair with sunlight in your eyes
You
Only here for the weekend, maybe I've got no time
To call you up on a Sunday
To fall in love on a Monday
And the hardest part was not saying goodbye

(Bye)
(Bye)

It's fine
