

Barefoot

Thomas Rhett

At a wedding or a party
At some downtown bar
It don't matter where we are, she's gon' shine
When her song comes on, you know it's over
Even if she is completely sober

My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor
Spinnin' all around
Head up in the clouds
Feet barely touch the ground
Don't know why I bought 'em
Don't know why she brought 'em
Got her shoes up in her hand
Like she's somewhere in the sand

My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor
My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor

Ooh, ooh, I spent a lot of money on them high heels
For her to stick 'em in her purse
Before the band makes it through the first verse, yeah
I stand back and watch her go crazy (Crazy)
I just laugh and say, "That's my baby, baby"

My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor
Spinnin' all around
Head up in the clouds
Feet barely touch the ground
Don't know why I bought 'em
Don't know why she brought 'em
Got her shoes up in her hand
Like she's somewhere in the sand

My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor
My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor

Yeah, my baby's breakin' it down
My baby's goin' to town
Like she's never been to town before
Yeah, my baby's tearin' it up
My baby's stirrin' it up
As soon as she hits the floor

Barefoot on the dance-floor, oh yeah

My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor
Spinnin' all around
Head up in the clouds
Feet barely touch the ground
Don't know why I bought 'em
Don't know why she brought 'em
Got her shoes up in her hand
Like she's somewhere in the sand

My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor
My baby's barefoot on the dance-floor
