

Blessed

Thomas Rhett

Lights are down, but you're shining
Like you always do
Every day I'm reminded of the miracle of you

You're too good for coincidence and too perfect for an accident
I'm not sure where heaven is, but every night I get a glimpse

And I know I'm blessed
Watching you spin in that dress
Make my heart beat out my chest
I can't count the times I've heard people say I'm lucky
But lucky ain't the word
Oh, I'm blessed
And all I ain't got is my breath
You stole it the first time we met
You're more than I deserve, people say I'm lucky
But lucky ain't the word

Oh I
I keep checking you for halos
Swear you're an angel in disguise
You pull my mind from every angle and I
Can see heaven in your eyes

You're too good for coincidence and too perfect for an accident
I'm not sure where heaven is, but every night I get a glimpse

And I know I'm blessed (Blessed)
Watching you spin in that dress (Dress)
Make my heart beat out my chest
I can't count the times I've heard people say I'm lucky
But lucky ain't the word
Oh, I'm blessed (Blessed)
And all I ain't got is my breath (Breath)
You stole it the first time we met
You're more than I deserve, people say I'm lucky
But lucky ain't the word

Oh, I
Baby, you're the kinda girl that I'm always praying for
And I swear by my dying breath that I will be faithful
Oh, baby
'Cause I'm on my knees (I'm on my knees)
Whoa, you make me believe

Baby, I'm blessed (Blessed)
Watching you spin in that dress (Dress)
Make my heart beat out my chest
I can't count the times I've heard people say I'm lucky
But lucky ain't the word
Oh, I'm blessed (Blessed)
And all I ain't got is my breath (Breath)
You stole it the first time we met
You're more than I deserve, people say I'm lucky
But lucky ain't the word
