

Fool

Thomas Rhett

Baby, I'm a fool for you
Trippin' over words and my two left boots
You stay on my brain like your name's tattooed
Tryna play it cool, but I ain't that smooth

I'm a fool on this barstool
Baby, where you tryna go, and can we carpool?
You got that quicksand I'm tryna fall through Girl, every part of me, you know that's all you

Baby, I'm, I'm addicted to your lovin', need a hit right now Yeah, tonight, I could use a little something from your lips right now
w

Baby, I'm a fool for you
Trippin' over words in my two left boots
Catch a hot grenade if you ask me to
Tryna play it cool, but I ain't that smooth

I'm a fool for you and only you, yeah
Yeah, baby, I'm a fool for you and only you, yeah

I'm a fool, yeah, baby, I'm a psycho
If there's only room for one of us, you get the lifeboat
I mean, just look at you, baby, you drive this country boy crazy
If loving you was a crime, just throw the book at me, baby

I'm, I'm addicted to your lovin', need a hit right now
Yeah, tonight, I could use a little something from your lips right now
w

Baby, I'm a fool for you
Trippin' over words in my two left boots
You stay on my brain like your name's tattooed
Tryna play it cool, but I ain't that smooth

I'm a fool for you and only you, oh, yeah, yeah
(Baby) Baby, I'm a fool for you and only you

You've been mine since 2010, and
My heart still beats a mile a minute
Nothing's changed, I'm still stuck right in the palm of your hand, ye ah

Baby, I'm a fool for you
Trippin' over words in my two left boots
Catch a hot grenade if you ask me to
Tryna play it cool, but I ain't that smooth

I'm a fool for you and only you, oh, yeah, yeah
Baby, I'm a fool for you and only you, girl
