

I could search for thirty days and thirty nights and come up empty
We could do better but we don't have the time
Yeah, I could starve my body, swell your body as well as any
We could do better but it's hard for us to tell

So I'll take you where you wanna go, my baby
Yeah, nothing is too far, nothing too crazy
If I'm holding you, you can't be waiting
For something else, for something more, I'm saying

We're not built to love and run
No, we're not built to run
Because it's hard to keep it casual
When a heart's involved, you know
Lately I've been thinking 'bout
How I wanna be the one
Because it's hard to keep it casual
When a heart's involved, you know

So I'll take you where you wanna go, my baby
Yeah, nothing is too far, nothing too crazy
So I'll take you where you wanna go, my baby
Yeah, nothing is too far, nothing too crazy

You could knock on every door, on every street, you could be happy
You could better but you're scared to be alone
We could hurt each other's pride a thousand times too many
And we could do better but we never really know, yeah

So I'll take you where you wanna go, my baby
Yeah, nothing is too far, nothing too crazy
If I'm holding you, you can't be waiting
For something else, for something more, I'm saying

We're not built to love and run
No, we're not built to run
Because it's hard to keep it casual
When a heart's involved, you know
Lately I've been thinking 'bout
How I wanna be the one
Because it's hard to keep it casual
When a heart's involved, you know

So I'll take you where you wanna go, my baby
Yeah, nothing is too far, nothing too crazy
So I'll take you where you wanna go, my baby
Yeah, nothing is too far, nothing too crazy