

Obsession

Thornhill

Did I hypnotise?
We could disappear into the night
But your obsession keeps my secrets well intact
Your aggression feels so heavenly
But let me say

I sonder them all
(But you)
A portrait of a lady on fire in my head
I'll surrender and crawl
Even if it breaks me
Just say that you will never leave
Because we're meant to be tonight

Your beauty feels like suffering, I'll take it all
'Cause what we do in the dark got me thinking

I'm with you in my head
Your devotion makes your bullets feel so real

You won't pierce my shield
Let's make a deal, no?
You won't make me yield
No, not anymore

So I keep you draped in a silver light
I know this double exposures got me composed in a petty fit
Contact, contact
Open up
You wanna know?
Vertigo, I'll stay obsessed

I'll slaughter them all
(But you)
A portrait of a lady on fire in my head
I'll surrender and crawl
Even if it breaks me
Just say that you will Never leave 'cause you're heavenly
