

Only Ever You

Thornhill

I dreamt this dream in the front seat
If they press play will it all go away?
Everything will decay
So I've been keeping my distance
Behind the lens I felt you change
But I thought it could wait another night

'Cause you make me weak

I can feel you linger
'Cause I can feel you linger on me
No. I have never felt this way

But you make me wait
Redesign my allure

You played it well on the surface
Mysterious skin do you know yourself?
Know yourself

I've been hoping you let go
You can say what you want
I know your cage
And I'm not gonna wait another night

So softly, I really want you near
What would you take to make me weak?

I can feel you linger
'Cause I can feel you linger on me
No. I have never felt this way

Just let me feel the pressure
Just let me feel the pressure of you on me
No. I could never leave

Now it's your stage why are your curtains down
Make them believe in you
The flame of my faith in you won't go out
You are my everything

You are my everything
Oh, no. I have never felt this way

I can feel you linger
'Cause I can feel you linger on me
No. I have never felt this way
(Only ever you)
Just let me feel the pressure
Just let me feel the pressure of you on me
No. I have never felt this way
