

Feel

Thornley

Was it always ever after?
Was it only 'cause you have to?
As you kept one foot out the door
Well, you won't have to lie no more

Could you make up one more heaven?
'Cause the last one's gone forever
Will you always hold out for more?
Was I always just in your way?

Did you feel?
Did you feel so loved?

Do your friends still keep you laughing?
Did they help you build your castle?
Did they give up all of their world?
We were tangled, but now unfurled

Did you feel?
Did you feel so loved?

One last thing before I go for good
Don't call it love
Out of that grasp and into the arms
Of what I'm dreaming of
When you don't know you're lost
Baby, you'll never be found

Did you feel?
Did you feel so loved?
Did you feel?
Did you feel so loved?

Did you feel?
Did you feel?
Did you feel?
Did you feel so loved?

Did you feel?
Did you feel?
