

Going Down

Those Damn Crows

You can't contain
She's a hurricane lover
Head is spinning
As she's going down

Can't fight this feeling
Cause it's like no other
I close my eyes
My feet are off the ground

I swear the rumours are true
She'll drain the life from out of you
Spit you out for someone new
Going down

Hell's gate
Can't escape this lover
She's not stopping till she hears that sound
You can't retain or sustain this woman
Gatekeeper in her own fairground

She'll make a blind man see
Performs her miracle on me

Dirty drug
Angel of the darkest kind
Dirty drug
Eyes roll back, she'll blow your mind
Dirty drug
Lose myself all sense of time
She's my all-time favourite drug
There's no stopping her from going down
Going down

So hang on
She's all your fantasies rolled into one
It won't be long, till she's gone and she's just a memory

Dirty drug
Angel of the darkest kind
Dirty drug
Eyes roll back, she'll blow your mind
Dirty drug
Lose myself all sense of time
She's my all-time favourite drug
Nothing hits quite like she does

Dirty drug
Perfection personified
Dirty drug
Can't resist, my god I've tried
Dirty drug
Yours for one night only
If you're chosen, then surrender, she's already seen you coming
Second guess your innocence
Going down
