

Hey Man (Look At Me Now)

Those Damn Crows

Waste no time, put it all on the line
I remember everything you said to me
Don't you?
Watch as I add more fuel to the fire
Watch it burn out as the flame, it dies with you

Reminisce, yeah I ain't got time for this
I found my weakness, it was you

Hey man, look at me now
Cause seeing is believing, take a good look around
Couldn't picture this, wouldn't miss this
Not for the world
Who's had the last laugh now?

All messed up, I was under attack
Karma is the bitch that brought me back for good
Constant cravings driving me mad
Comes full circle, raised me from the dead

Screw all this, your ignorance is bliss
I'm a ticking time bomb made by you

Hey man, look at me now
Seeing is believing, take a good look around
Couldn't picture this, wouldn't miss this
Not for the world
Hey man, look at me now
Admit it, I did it, hand over the crown
Couldn't picture this, wouldn't miss this
Not for the world
Who's had the last laugh now?

Patience
We all need patience
But as my patience wears thin with you
Breathe in
And start to take in
Started believing
In what I do

Hey man, look at me now
You had your minute, it's time to move on now
Couldn't picture this, wouldn't miss this
Not for the world
Hey man, look at me now
Admit it, I did it, hand over the crown
Couldn't picture this, wouldn't miss this
Not for the world
Who's had the last laugh now?
