

Never Win

Those Damn Crows

If the stars all aligned in the clear night sky, would you let me in?

If your heart was a home, wasn't made of stone, could you let me in?

'Cause the truth's still untold but we both surely know how this really ends

There are things left unsaid, as my heart rules my head, I will never win

I will never win

If I worked to the bone, pay for all we own, would you let me in?

How I count to three when you scream at me, can't you let me in?

'Cause I know how this goes, you're a dying rose, I will never win

There's no more I can do, I have proved to you, I will never win

I can never win

'Cause the fire is slowly dying

There's nothing I can do

There's no one there besides me

Just memories of me and you

If you gave up the game, who's at fault, who's to blame, could you let me in?

It's like hide and seek but you won't find me, can't you let me in?

The one I wanted most, all remains is your ghost, I will never win

I know the feeling well, I have failed again, I will never win

I can never win

'Cause the fire is slowly dying

Is there nothing I can do?

I know nothing lasts forever

I thought together we can't lose

Oh, can you picture life without me as I walk away from you?

I know we were far from perfect but I fought so hard for you

'Cause I know how this goes, you're a dying rose, I will never win

Twisted, torn in two, I'm a fool for you, I will never win

I will never win

I will never win

I can never win
