

Sin On Skin

Those Damn Crows

I feel it, I feel it
I feel it, it's written all over my skin
But I want it, I want it
I want it I know as it starts to begin
I've waited, I've waited
To feel this good
I know
There's no turning back now

Break me down
Echoes of the past scream loud
Mind is trapped in here and now
The moment has arrived
And takes over

I feel it, I feel it
I feel it, your sin is all over my skin
But I want it, I want it
I want it I know as I watch you give in
I've waited, I've waited
To feel this good

So chain me down
Before it falls apart
'Cause I don't wanna break your heart
So hang on

I feel it, I feel it
I feel it, your sin is all over my skin
But I want it, I want it
I want it I know as I watch you give in
I've waited, I've waited
To feel this good

Hide the truth and watch you fall apart
It's the lie that eats away your soul my friend
As it rots away and plagues your mind
The remains of who you are gets left behind

I can't breathe no more as I touch your skin
Now your mark remains forever like all our sin

I feel it, I feel it
I feel it, your sin is all over my skin
But I want it, I want it
I want it I know as I watch you give in
I've waited, I've waited
To feel this good

I feel it, I feel it
I feel it, I feel it
I feel it, I feel it

Seek and find
Cross the line
Sins combined
Only a matter of time

I feel it, I feel it
