

Takedown

Those Damn Crows

Think you're taking me down
Well, your heart's not in it
'Cause your eyes don't lie, the fear inside
Bullshit every goddamn minute

Think you're taking me down
You're not gonna make it
Think I'm soft, but I'm cold
Half a story you know
Every joker has their limit (limit, limit)

I'm gonna fly once again
Throw my conscience away and soar
Watch as I fly once again
Feel the life through my veins once more

You keep kicking me down
Fucker, I'm still breathing
Give me all that you got
Give me your best shot
Let's see who comes out still grinning

You're not taking me down
'Cause my heart's still beating
Spending all your time, tryna destroy mine
Delusional world you live in (live in, live in)

I'm gonna fly once again
Throw my conscience away and soar
Watch as I fly once again
Feel the life through my veins once more

Yeah, yeah (yeah, yeah)
No more (no more)
I've seen your kind come and go
Yeah, yeah (yeah, yeah)
No more (no more)
Survival's all that I know

I'm gonna fly once again
Throw my conscience away and soar
Watch as I fly once again
Feel the life through my veins once more
