

Beat Your Heart

Those Poor Bastards

Follow me dear into the night
Wouldn't you like to be alone?
Follow me dear into the dark
I'd sure like to beat your heart

'Til it's black and blue
'Til it's black and blue

Follow me dear into the woods
I don't think that you could
Follow me dear into the gloom
Looks like there's plenty of room

And it's black and blue
It's so black and blue

Follow me dear into the sea
What would you like to be?
Follow me dear under the waves
What use have we for graves?

They're black and blue
They're so black and blue
