

Burden of Sin

Those Poor Bastards

Give me the burden of sin, Lord
Give me the burden of sin
Give me the burden of sin, Lord

And make me feel human again
Always have I been an evil one
Always have I been an evil one
Always have I been an evil one
Make me feel holy again
Take the burden of sin
The burden of sin
And crush me right down for a while
Darkness was always my friend, Lord
Darkness was always my friend
Darkness was always my friend, Lord

Show me the light at the end
Is there an end to the doom, Lord?
Is there an end to the doom?
Is there an end to the doom, Lord?
How many lives must you ruin?
Take the burden of sin
The burden of sin
And crush me right down for a while
Take the burden of sin
The burden of sin
And crush me right down for a while
Yeah, crush me right down for a while
