

Cold World

Thou

It's a cold world to walk alone in
You need some side to start belonging
There's always open arms in the war
The out crowd is laughing at you
A man with a badge appears, saying, "It's warm. Come inside."
Kid, you got no real agendas
All the good you've done been's forgotten
There's always open arms in the war