

Fucking Chained To the Bottom of the Ocean

Thou

This freezing chamber is inescapable
These ashen walls are insurmountable
Empty sockets see nothing
But black, black, black abyss

Endless gloom, endless solitude
A lifeless form, twilight eternal
The current sweeps their bones to shore
The last reminder of the death they endured

Of the oceans depths
They are now sure
No escape, no escape
No escape, no escape

Reaper, join us
Father of death, return to us
Empty sockets see nothing
But black, black, black abyss

We are all lost between hell and the sea
The surface is shimmering, just beyond our reach

Why? Why have we been abandoned?
Shadows grasp at ghosts of memories

There is no release
There is no end in sight
Tomorrow will never come
I cannot ever, ever
Ever give up, ever give up
