

Practically, every one of the top 40 records being played on every radio station in the united states is a communication to the children to take a trip, to cop out, to groove
The psychedelic jackets on the record albums have their own hidden symbols and messages, as well as the lyrics to all the top rock songs, and they all sing the same refrain:
It's fun to take a trip, put acid in your veins

I want to reach out and touch the sky
I want to touch the sun, but I don't need to fly
I'm gonna climb up every mountain of the moon
And find the dish that ran away with the spoon

I've crossed the oceans, turned every bend
I found the plastic and the golden rainbow's end
I've been thru magic and through life's reality
I've lived a thousand years, it never bothered me

It's fun to take a trip, put acid in your veins

Got no religion, don't need no friends
Got all I want and I don't need to pretend
Don't try to reach me, 'cause I'll tear up your mind
I've seen the future and I've left it behind
