

The Unnamed Path

Thou

Into the dark night of the soul
Emotional balance restored
Self-limiting beliefs forsaken
Cultivate the Shadow Self
Spirituality made visceral
We have healed the religious wounds of a stifling upbringing
We have absolved ourselves of shame and guilt
We have communed with our true ancestors
We have raised the Great Crossroads
We now see the third face of God
In defiance of binary gender, we are made whole and surrender to the unity of synchronicity
And in life, outward reflection
The power of resonance
Like vibrates like
Like amplifies like
In true greatness
