Thousand Below

You won't come home, but it's true
I hope you know that I can see
The way that you keep running back to me
Why do you keep running back to me?
So what the hell did you even see in me?
Why don't you just

Sleep up, sleep up
You can call me in the morning when you're feeling all blue like
Leave us, leave us
In the past took our love and you put it in the noose
So why should I forgive you?
You're the reason I choose
Feelings, feelings
Feelings over everybody else I knew

Now you won't come home, and you won't get close
And you pay me no mind now, until you're feeling all cold
And now you got a lot to lose
With the same old people in the same old room
And now you got a lot to prove
Baby I know you're a safe bet to lose

Sleep up, sleep up
You can call me in the morning when you're feeling all blue like
Leave us, leave us
In the past took our love and you put it in the noose
So why should I forgive you?
You're the reason I choose
Feelings, feelings
Feelings over everybody else I knew
Feelings over everybody else I knew

And you won't get close now
Cause you wanna feel the distance
And you're feeling all cold now
But you won't come home

Sleep up, sleep up
You can call me in the morning when you're feeling all blue like
Leave us, leave us
In the past took our love and you put it in the noose
So why should I forgive you?
You're the reason I choose
Feelings, feelings
Feelings over everybody else I knew
