

SHAKE

Thousand Below

I feel a little bit different
It's like I got a brand new soul
Maybe it's the distance
Maybe I'll decide to chase the fantasy

But when you break me running through all my weakness
I talk dirty to find your secrets and we
Let it carry on
You don't have to say you're moving on
You don't have to say it but just

Don't leave me in the dark I'm all alone
Feel it every time you fucking go
If it's all the same
I'll light up, drink up
Waste it with my friends
Burn away inside my head
Feel the shake inside my breath when you go

Feel the shake inside my breath when you go
I feel it every time

We add to the distance, the dying persistence
Maybe I'm the main character with a syndrome
I can't tell, I can't unimpose

Don't leave me in the dark I'm all alone
Feel it every time you fucking go
If it's all the same
I'll light up, drink up
Waste it with my friends
Burn away inside my head
Feel the shake inside my breath when you go

Feel the shake inside my breath when you go

I dread it every time but I beg for the punishment
I'm fighting off my reprieve

Don't leave me in the dark I'm all alone
Feel it every time you fucking go
If it's all the same
I'll light up, drink up
Waste it with my friends
Burn away inside my head
Feel the shake inside my breath when you go

Feel the shake inside my breath when you go
Feel the shake inside my breath when you-
