

The Wolf And The Sea

Thousand Below

Do you see me drifting away, gone like the waves and the wind you breathe?
I can feel it surround me, it's got me feeling alone like a wolf in the.

Here I am looking for you,
I know the voice, I don't recognize the tone.
And would you say I adore you?
And now I'm chasing the sun and I'm on my own.
Watching the light pass, say what you couldn't say to me.
I'm sitting idly just waiting, just waiting.

Drifting away, gone like the waves and the wind you breathe.
I can feel it surround me, it's got me feeling alone like a wolf in the sea.
Maybe I'm letting go, the feeling is caving in.
Maybe I'll let it out, and maybe I'll keep it in.
How did I get this way? I'm sinking slowly.
It's got me feeling alone like a wolf in the sea.
It's got me feeling alone like a wolf in the sea.
It's got me feeling like I'll never be getting home.

Tell me you're better off, leaving is simple.
When will you think of me, how long until.
You hide me away in the back of your mind.
If I'm so forgettable, then kill me, I'd rather die.

Drifting away, gone like the waves and the wind you breathe.
I can feel it surround me, it's got me feeling alone like a wolf in the sea.
Maybe I'm letting go, the feeling is caving in.
Maybe I'll let it out, and maybe I'll keep it in.
How did I get this way? I'm sinking slowly.
It's got me feeling alone like a wolf in the sea.

Why do I feel like I'm chipping away, and I'm tied to the anchor?
If this is the end then I'll sing my song.
I'm chipping away, going down with the anchor.
You already know what to say.
Maybe I'm letting go, the feeling is caving in.
Maybe I'll let it out, and maybe I'll keep it in.
How did I get this way, I'm sinking slowly.
It's got me feeling alone like a wolf in the sea.
