

Wrong Again

Thousand Below

I know you felt losses
Put it in the ground
Let the lights get you so numb
I don't even find it that hard
But I think of where you are
Then I'm so done

And now you've got a soul 'cause you been away?
Now you're taking lives down the interstate
Maybe I'm the problem, was it just love?
I never knew

Baby you were wrong again
Treat me like you know why
Now that we're a part of it
Heaven doesn't feel like
It doesn't feel like you, feel like you
Know that when it hurts I feel alive
So baby you were wrong again
Wrong again

Stay in my dreams
With a fear of falling out
I keep on letting go of it
It doesn't make a sound
And then I drown for a little bit
I could really give a fuck 'cause I'm feeling it
Am I better off now than last time?
Show me a better way to feel divine

Maybe I should play your game
Treachery in every damn word you say
Oh I think you know, a little venom for the road
Until I'm drowning

Baby you were wrong again
Treat me like you know why
Now that we're a part of it
Heaven doesn't feel like
It doesn't feel like you, feel like you
Know that when it hurts I feel alive
So baby you were wrong again
Wrong again

I know you felt losses
I know you got vices
And maybe I'm the problem, was it just love?
I never knew

Baby you were wrong again (wrong again)
Treat me like you know why
Now that we're a part of it
It doesn't feel like you, feel like you
Know that when it hurts I feel alive
So baby you were wrong again (wrong again)
Wrong again

Stay in my dreams

Baby you were wrong again
Baby you were wrong again
It doesn't feel like you
