

Inside Of You, In Spite Of You

ThouShaltNot

I am in the air now
I am in your lungs
I am written
I am spoken by a million flaming tongues

I'm the lens through which you see
I'm the process
I am the key
I am synapses firing bullets from a gun

I'm the world's mystique
I am the words you speak
I am language
I am hidden memories that you seek

I am the sun before you see me rise
I burn still when you close your eyes
I am the soul that never dies when flesh is weak

I am inside of you in spite of you
With strength and sacred grace
But for all you do
I'll carry you now
From this bitter place

I am in your future
I am in your past
I'm the echo of your footsteps
I'm your shadow cast

I'm the heat you radiate
I am the fury and the fate
I am each beat within your heart from first to last
I'm your action without thought

I am the instinct born inside you
I'm the bones from which you drape
I am protective skin to hide you
I'm the pull that the earth exerts

I am the rain that stings and the snow that blinds
I'm the architecture of your world and mind

I am the dawn of ages
I am the days seen through
I'm final entropy
I am inside of you

I am the clouds that cover
Your way into the blue
I kiss with life to give
All this in spite of you
