

When I Crash

ThouShaltNot

I'm not stopping the car until I make you cry
I'll drive it all night
Over the border and to every corner and edge of the world
Every island and ocean boiling and blue in motion
I'm not easing the gas until we both can sleep
We might as well be running the engine
With never a mention that we're sitting still
In the garage and nodding off (a mirage)

And there's no crashing until I see this through
If it's the last thing that I'll ever do
I'll make you feel one second pass
Where I am stone and you are glass
And you are broken when I crash with you

You're not dropping me loose without a fight
To hold on for my own life
Though it's a mile below, all the while
I'm digging my nails into gravity's ladder
Ripping your mind and matter

You're not walking away until your heart is torn
Our tears are reborn
Falling together like a ton of feathers
I'm pulling you down to the bottom where we'll be forgotten

I promise that
There's no crashing until I see this through
If it's the last thing that I'll ever do
I'll make you feel one second pass
Where I am stone and you are glass
And you are broken when I crash with you

And we'll keep moving faster till you scream
Burning rubber into the end of the dream
The air is breaking round our heavenly speed
And what you fear the most is what I need
And what you fear the most is what I need
Falling together going for forever and never ending
And spending our lives for moments that won't arrive
When you're feeling at last and reeling so fast
Because I'll finally touch what lies behind your walls
I'll make them fall

But there's no crashing until I see this through
If it's the last thing that I'll ever do
To make you feel my heart's affect
We're smashing now, a flaming wreck
And we are broken, we lie misconstrued
The end is spoken long since overdue
And I am bone and you are glass
And the last is first and the first is last
All the searing smoke and the blinding flash
And the smell of hope, the taste of ash
And the gates will open when I crash with you

The gates will open when I crash with you
And you are broken when I crash with you
And you are broken when I crash with you
