(Okay, Embasin)

If we run up on you niggas are you running back?
If we bust-up on you niggas are you busting back?
Bust up out the black Porsche or the Hellcat
Had to leave the murder scene where the shells at Catch me where them pills at

Trap house

Riding around northside, east Atlanta

Popping out with that stick, riding around shooting out, shooting at cancer

Popping out like I'm Santa, keep three hoes on the move, we practicing

Broke, down bad, kick your door down, got no manners

Favorite color green, love them dollars, Bruce Banner

Keep my piece, that heat, that smoke, you get way tanner

Niggas greedy, pigs, swine, that's a fucking fact

Better yet watch your back, better yet, better yet watch your back

New AR with a switch

Rocking Maison Margiela, fuck a covent hoe, she a witch

And I call this lil' bitch Lilo, she take the blues like Stitch 12 tried to hit Molly with the R.I.C.O. cause' he like Money Mitch with the contraband I feel like Gotti rich magic feel like Solomon

Call up my troops, we shoot at the coupe

If we run up on you niggas are you running back?

If we bust-up on you niggas are you busting back?

Had to bust up out the black Porsche or the Hellcat

Had to leave the murder scene where the shells at
