

Get My Shit Together

ThouxanBanFauni

Home late, I guess I left the stove on Good God, what the fuck have I become?
Dead plans, glad I didn't get to go
I could have a new girl, put her in a new car
No gas we ain't going very far
Big facts, everything just falls apart

Way back before we'd burn up
We used to wonder how we'd turn out
But there's way too much I've learned now
It's too much

And I don't think I'll ever get my shit together
People say, "Get a place, go get laid"
I don't really even feel the pressure (Feel the pressure)
Save the date, don't be late, getting married on a never
Maybe this is for the better
Maybe I'ma be alone forever
But I don't think I'll ever get my shit together

Man this my second time this week I bonded out the county (Out the of county, bonded out of county)
Her ex putting money on my head, come on with that bounty (Come on wi th that bounty, come on with that bounty) Keep that heated, Iron Man I feel like Robert Downey (Robert Downey, feel like Robert Downey) Folks losing faith in me by the day they all starting to doubt me (Th ey starting to doubt me, they starting to doubt me) Count me in count me out, either way I'ma keep on counting (I'ma keep on counting, I'ma keep on counting) Purple lady drank been therapeutic, drowning in that drowsy (Drowning in that drowsy, drowning in that drowsy) Everything been crashing down around me hell in my surrounding (Hell in my surrounding, hell in my surrounding) Everybody take the beat and lately I'm taking a pounding (I'm taking a pounding, I'm taking a pounding)
I be toxic, she be toxic till we're overcrowded
Giddy up on 'em horsepower bought whatever they hidin'
Puzzle pieces mixin' jigs all lookin' lousy

Way back before we'd burn up
We used to wonder how we'd turn out
But there's way too much I've learned now
It's too much

And I don't think I'll ever get my shit together
People say, "Get a place, go get laid"
I don't really even feel the pressure (Feel the pressure)
Save the date, don't be late, getting married on a never
Maybe this is for the better
Maybe I'ma be alone forever
But I don't think I'll ever get my shit together

It feels like you're just fine going through the motions and...
It feels like you've- you've become complacent
