

QUESTIONABLE MORALITY

ThouxanBanFauni

I go to church, not for the word, just to leave with a guaranteed freak
Slide to the city, then swerve to the burbs, head to the boonies, the trenches for drinks

Not a but shoutout to when I'm outta state he gon hold down the heat
In Baltimore we was nineteen, some pints and some P's

I close my eyes for a lil more space
Could believe in a God, still can't be safe
You roll your eyes when I talk this way
Me and my friends went separate ways
Might add a lil red in the Fanta for the flavor
America told me how to behave
Shit you want it, it's yours to take
Put it all on line, know what's at stake
Fuck all that talk, ain't no debates

Ran into my old ting while I'm on a date
Say what you want, know I got good taste
Good Cheese Cake then back to the basics
After I shit get replaced
My momma calling me, she know my ways
Might pick up, but there's nothing to say
Mind on a million different lil thangs
Like what to intrude or persuade

I ain't to sure about having blind faiths
What do you think they want us to see
I'd take your word if you rose from the grave
To be honest it's lookin like pyamind schemes
I know it's good and it's evil in me
You defined by your actions and hardly your speech
I don't know shit and I can't be naive
Tryna be balanced, in tune and in sync
I don't know shit and I can't be naive
Tryna be balanced, in tune and in sync
Balanced, in tune and in sync
Tryna be balanced, in tune and in sync
