ThouxanBanFauni

Synchronize my watches, track the time I lost
Cheese, cottage, gotti
You could die for the diet
Prolly, prolly, prolly
Fuck around with a lil' thottie
Can't let it form into a hobby
Actions speak louder than words, just not louder than my shotty
New carbon fiber clip, fully automatic
Fauni put plays in action, even if I gotta do it old fashion
Most you niggas practice, yeah just target practice

Don't let 'em fool you, don't be gullible
You get double crossed like you double oh
Money received through the mail, ayy, big stacks in the envelope
Pure drop got me fucked up got my vision just like kaleidoscope
Side bitch as a side note, no back shots just side strokes
Diamond ring for a guy stone, pale jacket fully rhinestone
Came in this hoe with two straps let bygones be bygones
Pullin' this hoe with a trigon, with the heart of a lion
Really these hoes be lyin', ayy, all of these niggas be lyin'
She was bad before I gave her bone now she bad to the bone
She was bad before I gave her bone now she bad to the bone
You was bad before I gave you bone now you bad to the bone
She was bad before I gave her bone now she bad to the bone

Synchronize my watches, track the time I lost
Cheese, cottage, gotti
You could die for the diet
Prolly, prolly, prolly

Let 'em have it, grab the ratchet
Nigga get wacked in, talkin' 'bout all that wack shit
Don't give it the satisfaction, I know you just want a reaction
Really it's quiet for all of you, pull up and let 'em have it
Let 'em have it, let 'em have it, let 'em have it
Let 'em have it, let 'em have it, let 'em have it
Let 'em have it, let 'em have it
