Escape From Reality

Threat Signal

I'm reaching deeper inside myself again
To find the words to use
If I had one more chance I would realize
This isn't fair to you

I swear there's a better life

You are the answer to all my pain
Escape from my prison
Now I can breathe for another day
Escape from reality

You see the regret in my eyes
Feel my sincerity hear my cries
I will not sacrifice my life
For this uncertainty
I will choose what's right, what's mine

I swear there's a better life

You are the answer to all my pain
Escape from my prison
Now I can breathe for another day
Escape from reality

Surrender my apology
Even though we'll never be the same again
I have no reason left to say
Don't ever doubt that I am here to stay
