Lie awake at night, to hatch my evil plots, I find myself
Stumblin through the dark, up against the fuckin verge of sin
Bodies in my yard, oh my god them demons came again
People don't you worry cause the Devil's Daughter got a plan
Ho, eternal burning you will have if you don't comprehend
Understand this shit a gansta bitch is sayin to ya dawg
Lock you in the trunk, mob through the night within the mist of fog
Never fear a nigga callin himself a killa, what's up bitch
Boy you claim you so goddam buck wild with that weak ass shit
Chillin at the hideout, smokin' out, not worried bout a thang
Ballin through Black Haven, deep as hell in that suburban mane

When the biblical stories were written they left out the one they call Lord
Infamous
Because the horror he possessed was one of a magnificence
He was set to be Lucifers only mortal kin
And he was sent to lead the world into unholy acts of sin
The architect of hell and inventor of the six
Interior decorator of chambers of eternal punishment
I'm the one that lit the furnace to the flame that burns forever
Supervisor of the torture, Lord have mercy? Not me, never I'm clever with corruption of the Seven Seas and continents
Demonic shit, the blunt is lit, abolishment, astonishin'
Watch the world - I crumble it, watch heaven - I rumble it
God kicked Scarecrow out of heaven for he did the Devil bitch
Holdin' angels hostage in the basement of Hell's Chapel
The only nigga to ever set heaven up for a fucking gaffle
The Devil fever flowin' through the fire hemisphere
Evil niggas throw yo sets in da air, if you dare

Throw yo setts in da air
Throw yo setts in da air
