

The Power

Three Days Grace

Today, I lost my peace of mind
Inside a poison paradise
I'm up against the clock
To right the wrongs
But time is ticking down like a time bomb

Hands are shaking, but I'm not breaking
The promise to myself, I'm not wasting
Another moment, another hour
I'm taking back the power

I've been dying for you, I've been dying for you
I just can't love you anymore
I'm taking back the power, taking back the power
You're the only one who I keep crawling back to
I just can't love you
Now it's over
I'm taking back the power, taking back the power

Today, I found my peace of mind
In broken pieces left behind
It's like you hid the devastation here for me to find
For the last time, this'll be the last time

I've been dying for you, I've been dying for you
I just can't love you anymore
I'm taking back the power, taking back the power
You're the only one who I keep crawling back to
I just can't love you
Now it's over
I'm taking back the power, taking back the power

Don't you know I hold you on a pedestal?
Don't you know you're underneath a halo?
Oh, I know these memories are painful
Don't you know you're underneath a halo?

I've been dying for you, I've been dying for you
I just can't love you anymore
I'm taking back the power, taking back the power
You're the only one who I keep crawling back to
I just can't love you
Now it's over
I'm taking back the power, taking back the power

Don't you know you're underneath a halo?
Don't you know you'll always be my angel?
