

1 - the devil's slave

Three Years Hollow

(Intro)

(The devil slaves away)
This can't go any faster.
There's no other way.
We feed off what we're given
and we never know.
We did it on our own,
the pain was never strong.
Time takes all that you feel.

The slave, the guilty and the fake,
the devil says I'm taking it all,
taking it all,
taking it all away from you.
I'm taking it all,
taking it all,
taking it all to give away.
The only thing that you know,
the guilty and the fake,
the devil slaves away.

The day is dying slower
and i'm so on the fence.
We sell ourselves for nothing
and we still have empty hands.
We're out here on our own,
the pain keeps coming on,
time heals all that you fear.

The slave, the guilty and the fake,
the devil says I'm taking it all,
taking it all,
taking it all away from you.
I'm taking it all,
taking it all,
taking it all to give away.
The only thing that you know,
the guilty and the fake,
the devil drives away all the life you had.
I don't know if you'll be forgiven.
Take it all, and push to the end.
Always.

(Solo)

The slave, the guilty and the fake,
the devil says I'm taking it all,
taking it all,
taking it all away from you.
(Taking it all away!)

I'm taking it all,
taking it all,
taking it all to give away.
The only thing that you know,
the guilty and the fake,
the devil slaves away.
