

I'm the teeth that gnash
I'm the trembling ash on your cigarette
I'm the tangled line
That always seems to wind around your neck

I'm the heavy hammer
That you seize to make something new
But all you can do is break
I'm the subtle dagger
Up your sleeve when someone's to blame
For making the same mistakes

I'm the mother tongue
I'm the manic fear when you hit send
I'm the monstrous maze
Where you've been lost for days and days on end

I'm the heavy hammer
That you seize to make something new
But all you can do is break
I'm the subtle dagger
Up your sleeve when someone's to blame
For making the same mistakes

I'm every fear that steals your sleep
And each precious thing that you can't keep

I'm the teeth that gnash
I'm the teeth that gnash
I'm the teeth that gnash
I'm the teeth that gnash
I'm the teeth that gnash
