

Splitting Sky

Throbbing Gristle

With iron wings
I see you waking slowly
Silver-lipped twilight
Murmur of crushed grass
Broken crystal noise
Your wings splitting sky
Splitting sky
Albatross
With iron wings
I see you waking slowly
Silver-lipped twilight
Murmur of crushed grass
Broken crystal noise
Your wings
Your wings
Splitting sky
Splitting sky
Little flat pieces
Words of blood
Have lost their pictures
They're breaking at last
Separated
Separated
Life offers a golden mass
That harp you play
Stars display secrets
Secrets
Gentle movements
Can't now speak
Planting seeds in inadequate gardens
Splitting sky
Splitting sky
Each has its own tongue
A hungry, hushed gasp
Gash
Peering lips
Peering lips
Before a final Winter comes
Irreverent, you flex
Space rolls
Space rolls
Winding huge malformed splinters
One strapped
And hidden
Broken blood
Niceties, broken
Niceties
Hold
Stop
Engine
Never ends
It's humming
Splitting sky
Splitting sky
And it's true, it is
It is imaginary
Time, envy

Albatross
Swallowed without doubt
A terrible mistake
Taken
Able to sit and wonder
Making miracles backwards
Albatross
Albatross
Twin returns
A broken gesture
Splitting sky
Splitting sky
Presence turns
Turns vertically
To snuff
That set my life sordid
That sets the option
That might float
And every mouth sings
Sings susceptibility
Splitting sky
Splitting sky
Splitting sky
Splitting sky
Purged with fire
Retrieve one answer
Albatross
Albatross
This golden mass
