From Belial

Throneum

Fall to the pit of hell
Heretic and masochistic field
Denial of the holy spirit
Black blood rules this world

Message from Belial
Living horror comes from darkness
Possessed legions spread
This might breath of sulphur

Monsters move from the crypts
Rotting air full of flying worms
Dig your heart of be too late
Belial has just talked

Hell manifests power
Worshiping its only Lord
Dark angels summon in fire ring
Their mouldy wings spread the disease
