Waiting For Perdition

Throneum

Demons descovering nature of stars
Creative death dismembered this place
Innocent searching for blessing of energy
Cause of eternal humanity's curse

Mercyful blasting echoes in hell
Weak mankind has awaken from sleep
Machines of war drenches this earth
I won't rest until this world burns

Foes of war my words deform your soul
Six billions of mutilated human whores
I hail evil geniuses in science of desolation
Master shows me way to perdition
