

All Animal

Through Fire

I'm gonna sharpen my teeth
On every stone you throw
I'm gonna tear right through your skin
Until I'm breaking every bone

You changed me
Now I'm angry

There's nothing human, nothing at all
There's nothing human about me now
'Cause you woke up the beast
It won't go back to sleep now
There's nothing human left of me

I'm all animal
All-all, all-all-all-all
I'm all animal
All-all, all-all-all-all
I'm all animal

And now I'm ready to feed
And now I'm ready to watch you bleed
You know I need another taste
'Cause I'm hungry, in a rage

You changed me
Now I'm angry

There's nothing human, nothing at all
There's nothing human about me now
'Cause you woke up the beast
It won't go back to sleep now

I'm all animal
All-all, all-all-all-all
I'm all animal
All-all, all-all-all-all
I'm all animal

When I'm under attack
When I'm under attack
When I'm under attack
I fight back
When I'm under attack
When I'm under attack
When I'm under attack
I bite, I fight back

You changed me
Now I'm angry

There's nothing human, nothing at all
There's nothing human about me now
'Cause you woke up the beast
And won't go back to sleep now

You've turned me into an animal
Into an animal
'Cause you woke up a beast
It won't go back to sleep

I'm all animal
All-all, all-all-all-all
I'm all animal
All-all, all-all-all-all
I'm all animal
All, all, I'm all animal
All-all, all-all-all-all
I'm all animal
