

Breaking Point

Through Fire

Now all I see is red
I've got tunnel vision
This adrenaline under my skin
Is pumping through my system
'Cause you pissed me off
I can't turn it off
I'm like a psycho outta control
I'm like dynamite
And you lit the fuse
And now I'm ready to explode

'Cause I'm at my breaking point
You've pushed me to the edge
There's no escaping it
I'm at my breaking point
This time, you'll meet the end
There's no escaping it
I'm at my
Break
Break
I'm at my breaking point
Break
Break
I'm at my breaking point

And now my back's against the wall
There's nowhere left to fall
It doesn't matter what you do
'Cause I'm going straight through you
Pissed me off
I can't turn it off
I'm like a psycho outta control
I'm like a time bomb ticking
And I'm at my fucking limit
Now I'm ready to explode

'Cause I'm at my breaking point
You've pushed me to the edge
There's no escaping it
I'm at my breaking point
This time, you'll meet the end
There's no escaping it
I'm at my
Break
I'm at my breaking point
Break

And nothing's gonna stop me now
I'm a time bomb ticking and you know I'm at my limit
I'm a time bomb ticking and you know I'm at my limit

And now I'm ready to explode

'Cause I'm at my breaking point
This time, you'll meet the end
I'm at my
I'm at my
I'm at my
Break
I'm at my breaking point
Break
I'm at my breaking point
