

Damage

Through Fire

I dug so deep
To find some peace
I buried you, now you're dead to me, dead to me
You still try to
Pull your way through
Leaving your scars all over me, over me

I know you won't let go of me
I'll take my life, just let me be!

I don't wanna love you
I don't wanna hate you
Buried alive, this damage won't die!
I thought I forgot you!
I thought I forgave you!
Forever mine, this damage won't die!

I feel your breath
Breathe down my neck
I hear your voice always echoing, echoing
I can't escape
To seal the fate
Put me out of this misery, misery

I know you won't let go of me
I'll take my life, just let me be!

I don't wanna love you
I don't wanna hate you
Buried alive, this damage won't die!
I thought I forgot you!
I thought I forgave you!
Forever mine, this damage won't die!

It's burning in my veins (Oh-oh)
As your poison fuels these flames (Oh)
Cut me, bleed me dry (Aah)
While I've made every sacrifice, (Aah)
It's time to take back my life!

I don't wanna love you
I don't wanna hate you
Buried alive, this damage won't die!
I thought I forgot you!
I thought I forgave you!
Forever mine, this damage won't die!

This Damage won't die! [x2]
(I don't wanna love you
I don't wanna hate you)
Buried alive, this damage won't die!
