

Dead Inside

Through Fire

So go! Dead inside, you're dead inside, you're dead inside, you're dead inside!

Paralyzed, lifeless
No more spine, spineless
Broken bones, broken soul
You lost all control
And we will never be the same
Can't turn back again
And we will never be the same
You cut the vein

No breathing, now I can feeling[?]
Everything's changing
Now I can see it
But you used to be is dead to me

So go! Dead inside, you're dead inside, you're dead inside
Now you're dead inside!

Still the night sinking
Tear the flesh, break skin
Burning eyes, buried alive
There's nowhere to hide
And we will never be the same
Can't turn back again
And we will never be the same
You cut the vein

No breathing, now I can feeling[?]
Everything's changing
Now I can see it
But you used to be is dead to me

So go! Dead inside, you're dead inside, you're dead inside
Now you're dead inside!

Paralyzed, lifeless...

Dead inside...

No breathing, now I can feeling[?]
Everything's changing
Now I can see it
But you used to be is dead to me

So go! Dead inside, you're dead inside, you're dead inside
Now you're dead inside!
