

Heal Your Wounds

Through Fire

Let go of all your pain
Let go of everything
Every memory that haunts you
Now no one can hurt you
Let go of all the rage
Let go of all the hate
It's not fair for you to carry
The burden is too heavy

Just breathe in
Breathe in
And let it all out

I am by your side
And I know you can fight
You're so strong
And you deserve to
Heal your wounds
You shine so bright
You blind the darkness inside
You're so strong
And you deserve to
Heal your wounds
Heal your wounds

Let go of all the blame
You didn't do anything wrong
Everything will be alright
One step at a time

Just breathe in
Breathe in
And let it all out

I am by your side
And I know you can fight
You're so strong
And you deserve to
Heal your wounds
You shine so bright
You blind the darkness inside
You're so strong
And you deserve to
Heal your wounds
Heal your wounds

You deserve to
You deserve to finally feel better
And let go of the anger

You deserve to

I am by your side
And I know you can fight
You're so strong
And you deserve to
Heal your wounds

You shine so bright
You blind the darkness inside
You're so strong
You deserve to
Heal your wounds, wounds, wounds
You deserve to
Heal your wounds
