

Prevail

Through Fire

I will prevail

I've had broken bones
All the scars still show
But I'm never defeated
Demons trying to take control
But I know I'm stronger than them
I feel it

As long as I'm still breathing
Believe me

I will crawl through the trenches
I will fight through hell
I will prevail
I was lost in the wreckage
But I found myself
I will prevail
I will prevail

I will prevail
I will prevail

Almost drown in disaster
Vital signs falling faster
But I'm not letting go
It's not my time to flatline
My spirit is alive
Illuminating soul

As long as I'm still breathing
Believe me

I will crawl through the trenches
I will fight through hell
I will prevail
I was lost in the wreckage
But I found myself
I will prevail
I will prevail
I will prevail

I'm ascending
I am rising
Above everything that held me down
Defying gravity now
Nothing can stop me
I will never bow down

For too long I closed my eyes
Lost in the darkness I felt inside
But now I finally feel alive
I see the light

I will crawl through the trenches
I will fight through hell
I will prevail

I was lost in the wreckage
But I found myself
I will prevail
I will prevail
I will prevail

I found myself
I found myself
I found myself
I will prevail

I will prevail
I will prevail
