

Passing Ships

Throw The Fight

I can't look into your eyes they're bleeding
And the bottom of my heart has run dry
Are we sinking ships?
Are we over it?
I hope, I hope

I can't hold onto your hands they're shaking
And the needle in my arm has turned black
Are we sinking ships?
Are we over it?
I hope, I hope

I can feel your heartbeat
I can feel it next to mine
I know you're alright
I can hear your whispers
In the dead of the night
Say you're alright

I can't look into your eyes they're fading
And the whispers in my ears are all gone
Are we passing ships?
Are we over it?
I hope, I hope

I can't let go of the past it's hopeless
As your smile begins to die on its own
Are we passing ships?
Are we over it?
I hope, I hope

I can feel your heartbeat
I can feel it next to mine
I know you're alright
I can hear your whispers
In the dead of the night
Say you're alright

I can feel your heartbeat
I can feel it next to mine
I know you're alright
I can hear your whispers
In the dead of the night
Say you're alright

Know you're alright
Say you're alright
