

Wolves in the Dark

Throw The Fight

Chances were made to be stolen
Feels like we're lost souls
Your eyes return to a shade of grey
Watch as the ocean tide slips away

Let's take this from the start
Told me you had a change of heart
With every word you'd say
With every word you'd say

We are the wolves in the dark
Hiding from disasters & broken hearts
We are the wolves in the dark
Hiding behind broken hearts
Heartbroken
Heartbroken

All you can do
Is hope for something
Calling, letting you know
Stuck in the shallows
Wondering what you mean to me
Always something haunting me

Let's take this from the start
Told me, you had a change of heart
