

Cut Away

Throwdown

I refuse to piss away my time, I won't dishonor these early graves
And I refuse to live my life choking on the ashes of my smoldering memory
Cut away, cut away, cut away from those who watched you sink
Eradicate them from your fucking life, they've only served to make you weak

This is what I am, the strength instilled
Straight edge, harder than iron my will
This is for life, for those we lost
Straight edge, stronger than ever the cause

I refuse to piss away my time, I won't dishonor these early graves
And I refuse to live my life choking on the ashes of my smoldering memory
Cut away, cut away, cut away this cancer from your life
Sever it, sever it, sever ties with all the scum who helped you die

This is what I am, the strength instilled
Straight edge, harder than iron my will
This is for life, for those we live
Straight edge, stronger than ever the cause

Rise from the wreckage, the life that you knew is beneath you
Purge the weakness, bleed out the lies
Born of the ruin, stronger than ever you rise
Straight edge, stronger than ever we rise
